$1. Per Year.

Fearnside & Co.

(Where There's Always "Something Doing.")

Great Opportunities

Come to you through channels that are this store's own. This store is not like other stores. Its progress is rapid. You understand its methods fully. The style of clothing we sell is commanding the attention of men and young men who dress stylishly and well. The stocks are larger, your choice wider. We have stepped higher on all the experience of our past, and give you the gain of the ripened knowledge of goods, of styles, of market. This means big economy to you.

Our collection of Overcoat styles illustrates very plainly how clearly we keep in touch with the advance ideas of fashion.

Isn't it satisfying to view all the latest styles, try them on one by one and then lay them side by side before deciding? Doesn't it make choosing easy? You can do it here, but you should come while the lines are intact. Remember, too, that every Suit and Overcoat is hand-made, is a model of nobby tailoring, of swell fabrics, and best of all, you don't have to pay exclusive tailor prices.

Boys' Clothing

In Suits or separate garments, that will please mothers as well as the boy.

In Mens' Shoes.

We have all the best makes, including the celebrated Hanan & Son's.

Fearnside & Co.

An Armour Exhibit.

The west window in Gay Bros., has been dressed this week for an exhibit of the products of Armour & Co., and the same is attracting no little attention and much favorable comment. Armour & Co. make a very great variety of wholesome eatables, and do not, as is generally supposed, confine themselves to the products of their packing house. There are hundreds of articles in this exhibit, running all the way from Armour's baked beans to mince meat for pies, all of which are kept in stock by Gay Bros. The window in question was dressed by Mr. J. R. Tyson of Jacksonville, the popular Armour agent for this district, and the work is that of an artist, in that it has sent many a spectator home with an appetite and has told him what to obtain in order to gratify it.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Henderson Grimet, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis, and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this ointment. It is most widely known, however as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by Ackerman & Stewart, druggists.

Announcement.

We have received the information that on Oct. 27th and 28th, Mr. W. J. R. Alexander, representing the well-known concern of L. E. Hays & Co., will be with us for the purpose of displaying fall and winter woolsens, etc.

The elegant and extensive lines in domestic and imported fabrics, that have been made to special order for this firm, is one that will surely pay you to inspect.

The tailoring firm of L. E. Hays & Co., is one of the best known in the country, and we feel positive that a trial will fully convince you to that end.

Trusting that you will bear in mind the dates, and soliciting a call, we remain

Sincerely yours,
Fearnside & Co.

Last Chance.

I am still here with many car loads of goods, at the old stand, and selling at a song. Come now or it will be too late. Many articles will be at our own price. Nineteen varieties lamp chimneys, the only stock in town.—WALTER THOMAS.

Club Musicales.

One of the most pleasant afternoons in the history of the Woman's Fortnightly Club was spent at the home of Mrs. H. S. Wilson, on October 17th, when the first musicale of this season was given. During the business meeting which preceded the musicale, Mrs. S. J. Hilburn presented the club with a beautiful gavel which was appropriately decorated with green and white ribbons.

The attention of members was called to the open meeting to be held in the club rooms on Oct. 24th, and to a children's auxiliary entertainment to be given in the Armory on November 7th. Thirty-two members responded to roll call, after which the following program, as arranged by Mesdames Wilson and Selden, was rendered:

Sketch of Ethelbert Nevin—Mrs. Selden.
Piano Duet—"Mazurka." Nevin—Mesdames Selden and Wilson.
Vocal Solo—"Answer." Robyn.
(b) "Sleep Little Baby of Mine." Dinee—Miss Crill.
Sketch of Franz Liszt—Mrs. Hafer.
Piano Solo—"Liebestraum." Liszt—Miss Leib.
Readings—(a) "Swan Song." (b) "Mrs. McWilliams' Experience With Lightning"—Mrs. Hilburn.
Vocal Solo—"Still as the Night." Bohm.
(a) "Brown Eyes has that Little Maiden"—Osgood—Miss Devereux.
Sketch of W. E. C. Seaboeck—Mrs. Wilson.
Piano Solo—"Minnette a l'Antioch." Seaboeck—Mrs. Wilson.
(A) "Home Sweet Home." (b) "My Country 'Tis of Thee"—Music Box.

A Pleasant Dancing Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell A. Davis entertained a number of young society people of the city on Wednesday evening at their hospitable home on South Eight street, by giving a dancing party in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Latham who have just returned from their bridal tour and who are here for a few days' visit.

There were thirty-two invited guests.

Dancing, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music, was the principal amusement of the evening, and all present spent a most enjoyable time.

Delicious refreshments were served at 11 o'clock, and needless to say, much enjoyed.

At late hour the merry young people began to disperse with unanimous expressions of a splendid time, and voted Mr. and Mrs. Davis the ideal host and hostess.

Mesdames Davis and Latham received.

Everybody Give 'Em a Lift.

Maj. Glessner of the G. S. & F. Ry. and F. H. Hafer, special State Fair Commissioner for this county, are visiting all sections of the county this week in the interests of big county exhibit at the forthcoming state fair.

Mr. Hafer feels that with proper help from the people he will be enabled to make the showing from Putnam county the banner exhibit at the fair, and that he will secure to this county the first premium for such exhibit.

The thing to do is for every citizen to take an interest in the matter by contributing of their best products to this exhibit. If you do not see these gentlemen, write to them and they will arrange to get your contributions.

Maj. Glessner says that what is most needed to complete the exhibit is a lot of hams, shoulders, side meat and lard.

MENTIONED FOR GOVERNOR.

Tis Said Congressman Davis Could Win Hands Down.

The Jacksonville Metropolis of Monday last contained the following: Several State papers have suggested that if Hon. Robert W. Davis should be a candidate for Governor, he would probably have no opposition.

Several weeks ago Congressman Davis announced that under no consideration would he be a candidate for re-election to Congress. Immediately following this announcement his friends linked his name with the Governorship, and the suggestion has met with general favor all over the State. A prominent and influential Democratic leader to-day, in speaking of Congressman Davis' probable candidacy for the Governorship, said:

"I have not received any definite information in regard to the matter, but I learn from others who are more intimate than I am with Congressman Davis, that he will in all probability submit to the pressure now being brought to bear on him. Should Bob Davis decide to make the race, I believe he would sweep the State. He is probably the strongest man, personally, before the people, and I know that he has had an ambition to be Governor of Florida, and he would make an admirable chief executive. From what I can learn Bob Davis will be in the race, and I believe that he will win, hands down."

So far as the next Governorship is concerned, Congressman Davis is the only man now prominently mentioned in this connection. He has for years been a conspicuous factor in State politics, and his record in Congress has been an admirable one. As an orator he has few equals, and his Democracy is of the character that excites the admiration of the members of the party. He is well qualified to fill any position within the gift of the people of this or any other State.

Jewels Fruit Sale.

The Little Jewels of St. James M. E. church, will, at a very early date, hold a sale of preserves, jelly, pickles, chili sauce and various other good things to eat. All articles will be home-made and of the very best quality. The time and place of this sale will be given in next week's paper. Housekeepers will do well to remember this for they will find many things which cannot be bought elsewhere.

San Mateo Wins.

The San Mateo base ball club went to Titusville last Monday and played a game with the club of that place. The match resulted in a victory for the San Mateo club by a score of 16 to 3.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY SAVED HIS BOY'S LIFE.

"I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hopp, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in a short time he was all right." This remedy is for sale by Ackerman & Stewart, druggists.

Jim Younger one of the notorious Younger brothers, outlaws, paroled recently from the Minnesota state penitentiary where they had been incarcerated since 1876, has committed suicide.

Henry L. Shattuck of Shelbyburg, Iowa, was cured of a stomach trouble which he had been afflicted for years, by four boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He had previously tried many other remedies and a number of physicians without relief. For sale by Ackerman & Stewart, druggists, Palatka, Fla.

IN AWFUL AGONY

WIFE OF JUDGE GEO. P. RANEY MEETS DEATH BY BURNING

In Her Home at Tallahassee Sunday Night.

Tuesday's Times Union and Citizen publishes the following special telegram from Tallahassee:

Tallahassee, Fla., Oct. 20.—About 4 o'clock Sunday night Mrs. George P. Raney, coming down the stairway at her home with a lighted lamp in her hand, stumbled and fell. The lamp was broken and the oil scattered over her clothing, which quickly took fire and rapidly burned. She ran up the stairway, setting the drapery on fire as she ran through the hall and from room to room.

The only member of the family in the house, Judge Raney being absent from home on business, was Miss Clyde Raney.

The commotion and fire created an excitement which brought in the neighbors. Col. A. L. Perkins was the first person to arrive, and he smothered out the fire with blankets, but not before the flames had done their fatal work, for Mrs. Raney died at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Raney, it is said, was burned fearfully, even her clothing being almost entirely burned from her body.

Mrs. Raney was formerly Miss Evelyn B. Cameron, of a noted Virginia family, and was less than a year ago married to Judge George P. Raney, and her horrible and untimely death during the absence of her husband from home has touched every sympathetic heart in the community.

GOINGS ON IN FLORIDA.

A steam ship mill and evaporator is to be put in at Mount Pleasant.

A shell and clay road is being built between Enterprise and Osteen.

The churches at Winter Park are being repainted—an evidence of prosperity.

The contract has been awarded for the new First Baptist church house in Jacksonville, to cost $31,397.

Dr. J. F. Appell, one of the oldest and most substantial citizens of Lake City, and the college physician, is dead.

Liberty county will have an election on Nov. 4th to decide the question of issuing bonds for a new court house.

Senator Frank Sams of New Smyrna is being groomed as a second district Congressional candidate two years hence.

Orlando is to have a new ice factory and the founders are making contracts with consumers to finish the work for two years at 25 cents per hundred.

Miss Cleo Hampton of Gainesville will have charge of state educational matters at the State Fair, and is even now at Lake City arranging her exhibit.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal church in Jacksonville is to be rebuilt of Georgia granite at a cost of $55,000. Work was begun Monday morning.

Citizens of Newberry, Alachua Co., are getting up a petition asking the governor to call a special term of the circuit court to try John Esler for the murder of Tom Clark, the bartender, in that place last week.

Orange county will indulge in a special "wet" and "dry" election in December. The county is now "dry." Col. Manley of Sanford gives it as his opinion that the election will result in a victory for the "wets."

J. D. Smith has bought 8,000 acres of pine land near Limona, 10 miles out from Tampa, on which he proposes to settle a colony of thrifty people and also establish an Industrial school providing he can get the cooperation of the board of trade and citizens of Tampa.

Rev. J. C. Porter of Ocala, editor of the Baptist Witness, has just undergone a surgical operation at the Marion County Hospital, whereby his seventh rib was removed in order to permit a free drainage from an affected lung. The patient survived the operation well, and it was a complete success.

The captors of Faircloth and Smith, executed for the Lewis murders, are going to law over the reward. Shortly after the murder Dr. O. B. Lewis offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and evidence to convict. There are so many interested that it is a question to whom the money should go, and a law suit will be required to determine.

Bishop Kenny of the Catholic diocese of Florida has assigned Rev. Father Maher to St. Augustine, to the pastorate of the church in Jacksonville. Rev. Father Claverie of Mandarin goes to St. Augustine, and Rev. Father James Veale, of Jacksonville, has been assigned to Mandarin. The appointment of a vicar-general for the diocese has not yet been made.

Chas. L. Filides of Gainesville announces in the Metropolis that he is a candidate for Congress from the second district two years hence. At the same time he throws it into J. M. Barrs in this wise: "I am not at all surprised that Mr. Barrs should want the position. I have known him many years, and am unable to recall the moment when he did not hold office or was trying to get into one."

In a street fight Monday, growing out of a dispute over a lawsuit, W. C. O'Neal, president of the American National Bank, Pensacola, stabbed Adolph Greenhut, a wholesale grocer, under the left ear near the large artery, also in the back and on the arm, the wound in the neck being serious. O'Neal was arrested on a warrant charging him with assault with intent to kill, and was released on $500 bond. Greenhut is resting easy to-night, but is not yet out of danger.

CONDENSED WORLD NEWS.

An attempt on the life of President Loubet of France has been frustrated.

Over 2,000 prominent Methodists are in session in Cleveland Ohio to discuss missionary work.

The convention of coal miners at Wilkesbarre, Pa., has called off the strike and the men will return to work today.

A rice famine is more than probable in the Philippines, in which event this country will be expected to take care of its poor relations.

The Gloucester sugar refinery at Taylor street and the Chicago river, Chicago, burned Tuesday night and 10 persons perished in the flames.

Richard B. McCoy is dead at his home in Dublin, Maryland. McCoy was one of the men who conferred with President Lincoln on negro suffrage the night before the president was assassinated. Though a strenuous abolitionist, McCoy was opposed to negro suffrage.

In the United States district court at Macon, Ga., on Tuesday, Judge Emory Speer rendered an opinion, that all funds held by trustees in bankruptcy or other fiduciary agents of the United States courts are liable to state and county taxation. It has not been the practice heretofore to collect such taxes on funds in the various depositories pending the litigation.

Dr. Carradice, an aged female physician of Tampa, has been committed to jail in that city for habitual drunkenness.

Nat R. Walker of Crawfordville has been engaging in a street fight in that town with a negro. The negro was arrested and placed in jail, and two nights later taken out by unknown parties, given a horsewhipping, then turned loose. Next day the negro gave himself up to the authorities and gave bond for his appearance at the circuit court. The local paper account of the affair seems to throw the blame on Walker.

Richard Hone, a well-to-do pine-apple grower, living three miles south of West Palm Beach, on Lake Worth, was shot and instantly killed at 7 o'clock Monday night, while sitting at a table with Mrs. Hone, writing a letter. Bobbet is supposed to have been the motive of the murder, who has so far not been found. A posse is on his trail, and if caught he will be lynched. Telegrams have been sent to different points for bloodhounds. The affair has created intense excitement, owing to the prominence and popularity of the victim.

D. W. Tompkins, one of the prominent citizens of Micanopy, was arrested on Sunday charged with the murder of a negro, which was committed near Micanopy about six months ago, in Marion county. The deed had been forgotten by many and the arrest was a surprise. There has been a negro confined in the county jail of Marion charged with the offense during this time, and it is said he had sworn to the statement that Tompkins was the guilty man. The true bill was found by the grand jury of Marion county last week and the sheriff of this county was notified on Sunday to arrest the prisoner.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

RATHER MOURNFUL WEDDING.

Mrs. Alice Leasure and John W. Ward of Parkersburg, W. Va., were married yesterday by Rev. R. L. Woodward. The bride, a handsome woman of 23 years, appeared with the elegance in deepest mourning, and when questioned explained that it was for her former husband, who had been dead six weeks, and for whom she will continue to wear mourning.

MARRIED AT MOTHER-IN-LAW'S BEDSIDE.

Thinking her illness was fatal and anxious to see her daughter, Mrs. Ida Lee, married before she died. Mrs. Joseph H. Petty, of Amityville, Ohio, widow of the state senator, was one of the principal witnesses at a wedding which was celebrated by her bedside. The fact of the marriage, which took place a week ago, was kept secret, and it was only yesterday, when it was announced that Mrs. Petty was on the high road to recovery, that the announcement also was made of the wedding. The bridegroom was Charles H. Singer, of New York.

WOMEN DIG FOR A CHURCH.

Beaver Dam, Wis., women have discovered a novel way to raise funds for churches. A delegation had asked a merchant for funds. He was tired of buying tickets to fairs, suppers and theatricals, so he made a proposition. He offered to give $20 to the Presbyterian church if the women of the congregation would dig potatoes for two hours and allow spectators.

The offer was accepted and a large number of tickets worded as follows were sold:

The holder of this Ticket is entitled to a reserved seat on Mrs. Waldner's fence to see the Ladies of the First Presbyterian church DIG POTATOES. From 2 to 4 p. m., today, Tuesday. Proceeds of sale to go to the church. Price of ticket from 25 cents up, according to the liberality of purchaser.

A farmer living near the city gave permission to have his field used and 30 of the women marched to the scene of their "martyrdom." The party was made up of "maids and matrons." There were girls of 12 and women of 70, all eager to dig potatoes and secure the money for their church. The procession moved through the city, the women marching two by two, each carrying her own implements. A large sum was realized.

EARS PUT ON EARLESS BOY—

A most unusual surgical operation was performed in Bowling Green, O., recently, when Bartlett How, 8 years old, was provided with a pair of ears. The lad was born without ears, but could hear all right as the interior organ was not affected. There was nothing of the skull to indicate that he would ever have ears.

His parents were well-to-do. They took the child to many hospitals, and at all the physicians refused to undertake the operation. Finally local physicians, after obtaining the parents' consent, performed what is known as the "plastic operation," and in two hours the lad was the possessor of ears.

SEVENTEEN YEARS COURTSHIP'S END—

In the superior court last week at Fall River, Mass., a jury returned a $20,000 verdict for Miss Mary McDonald against Patrick Kieran in a suit for breach of promise. Kieran is superintendent of the Fall River water works and a bachelor of 60 years or more. Miss McDonald, whom he has known from infancy, is 38 years of age, a graduate of Radcliffe, and has local fame for her literary ability. The evidence for the plaintiff was that Kieran began to pay her attentions 17 years ago, and from that time until recently these never ceased. He was her constant companion at home and abroad, bought her valuable presents and paid her way through Radcliffe college. Many letters, couched in most affectionate language, written by Kieran, were read in court.

Miss McDonald contended that they were engaged many years ago, and that his conduct was that of a loving fiancé until Mrs. Catherine Leary came into the field.

DOUKHOBOR FANATICISM—

The statement made a short time ago that the Doukhobors were abandoning their cattle and horses and letting them run loose has received confirmation. A bill posted at Fort Pelly, N. W. T., says:

"The owners having no further use for the goods and chattels heretofore mentioned, they will be sold at auction on Oct. 24. The goods and chattels consists of 285 head of cattle, more or less, all ages; and 120 horses, more or less." The bill is signed by J. Obed Smith commissioner of immigration.

Smith says that these cattle and horses were those of the Doukhobors who had turned them loose. A number of the Doukhobors have been persuaded by one of their preachers to hold any living thing whatsoever in bondage is contrary to the will of God, and to eat their flesh or to wear any article made from any part of an animal is exceedingly sinful. They will wear no boots nor woolen clothes, nor even use milk or eggs. To sell their animals would also have been a sin, so they turned them loose.

The cattle wandered north until captured near Fort Pelly by government agents, who were sent out for that purpose. The proceeds of the sale are to be devoted to providing food for the Doukhobor people during the winter.

SILENT FOR FORTY YEARS—

A suit has been filed to partition the estate of John Burger, of Evansville, Ind., who died three months ago. Burger never spoke to a human being for 40 years, because he was right in love when a young man. He made his home with his brother, C. A. Burger, a tailor, in Petersburg, and accumulated a fortune in the tailoring business.

At the time of his death he owned a large farm, besides his personal property and real estate in Petersburg. He left no will, and his two brothers at Princeton have filed a petition in the Pike county circuit court for their share of the estate. The wife of C. A. Burger, it is said, will claim a considerable sum for boarding and lodging Burger for 40 years.

WANTED.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and liver troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try one bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. Ask your oldest druggist.
